Count on Nora M. Bradley

Nora M. Bradley, Computer Graphic Designer and Operator of Bradley Graphic Arts, is seeking a position creating and designing graphic material for all types of visual communications media. She is proficient in creating and compiling a variety of printer and web-ready artwork and layouts, and enjoys taking a customer's ideal business image from inspiration to reality.

VALUABLE EXPERIENCE

Since completing her Diploma in Computer Graphic Arts in 2001, Bradley has been freelancing her skills to such businesses as LeBaron Chiropractic, Touched by a Jewel Sports Massage, & Cumard Welding.

A & N Fabrication has her design all of their computer forms and Absence Skate Shop (opening soon) has contracted her to design their new web site.

Bradley has been a freelance artist for 30 years, shown occasionally, sold a few pieces along the way, and for the past 18 years has made her living in front of a computer in one capacity or another.

EXPERT KNOWLEDGE

Bradley has extensive, expert knowledge of the PC platform, the internet, and such design software packages as Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Imagerady, and Adobe Illustrator, CorelDraw, Ulead VideoStudio and Ulead GIF Animator, Homesite, and WS_Ftp Pro. She also commands a more-than-rudimentary understanding of Quark Express, Corel Photopaint, Excel, HTML, Java script, and the Mac platform.

With a constant desire to further her talents, Bradley is currently very excited to be learning Zbrush, a dynamic 3-D drawing program!

In 1999 she returned to school and received her diploma in Computer Graphic Arts from Harcourt International Learning Center, Scranton, Pennsylvania. She has designed business cards, flyers, brochures, computer business forms, and logos to meet detailed customer specifications.

Her knowledge of design principles, color themes, layouts and technical requirements added to her outstanding organizational skills and her ability to work well with clients, makes her a valuable asset. If you would like to put these skills to your advantage, call her today.
